Curan VanDerWielen, Zoning Administrative Officer

Should you disagree with this administrative opinion, you may appeal to the Development Review Board (DRB) within 15 days of this notice of compliance. An appeal must be filed with an application for land use and development and payment of the appeal fee as listed in the Village of Manchester fee schedule. An appeal must be in writing and include the name and address of the appellant, reference to the applicable regulatory provisions, and a description of the relief requested and any supporting information justifying the request. An appeal to the DRB is the exclusive remedy for challenging decisions of the Administrative Officer. If not appealed, this notice of zoning compliance will be final at the conclusion of the 15-day appeal period.
